$2,000 Fire in R.C. Tavern Heaps Tragedy Upon Tragedy For Manager Vernon Kelly

Tragedy struck twice in two days for Vernon Kelly of Redwood City over the week end. First was the death of his brother, Sgt. Walter Kelly, 29, of Woodside, Friday in a Redwood City motel, caused by carbon monoxide poisoning. Second was a fire Saturday night at Wood's Tavern just south of the Redwood City city limits on the opening night under Kelly's management which did $2000 worth of damage.

Both the Redwood City Fire Dept. and the San Mateo County Forest Service went to the blaze, which originated, County Fire Warden Bert L. Werder reported, in an overheated chimney flue.

Seventy persons who were celebrating the re-opening of the place were forced out by the fire. Patrons were just completing dinner when the fire was discovered. The Redwood City Fire Dept. was notified at 8:12 p.m. and the county fire department was called at 8:15 p.m.

Traffic on El Camino Real was detoured for an hour.

Difficulty was encountered by firemen as three roofs were overlapping each other and the fire was in between the roofs, where it had mushroomed from the chimney from an oil-burning stove.

The fire made a spectacular scene for a time when red spots illuminated through the shingles, although there was no high blaze, Werder said. Firemen had to "dig" into the shingles to extinguish the blaze.

There was no confusion among the patrons, Werder reported.

Although Wood's Tavern is outside the city limits, the Redwood City Fire Dept. under direction of Chief Mark E. Ryan was first to respond. County firemen relieved them when they arrived, but the city firemen remained at the scene for an hour. Chief Ryan dispatched three pieces of fire-fighting equipment, and eight regular firemen. Werder dispatched a large fire truck and six firemen. Redwood City police directed traffic. Auxiliary firemen and policemen assisted.

Werder credited Chief Ryan and the Redwood City firemen with saving the place from complete destruction by taking over before county firemen arrived. County firemen battled the blaze two hours and Werder remained at the scene until almost midnight.

Werder estimated damage to the building at $1500 and damage to the contents at $500. Both were covered by insurance, he said. The building is owned by Progress Lumber Co.

Considerable food was destroyed. Kelly had spent several weeks painting the place and getting it ready for the opening.

Meantime, Dep. Coroner Lewis Franklin said Monday that an autopsy report shows that the deaths of Sgt. Walter Kelly and Mrs. Edith Scott, 38, of Emerald Lake, in the New Garden Motel at 1650 Broadway were caused by carbon monoxide poisoning.

Sgt. John Wojciechowiez, 25, of Camp Roberts, who lost consciousness in the same motel room, has been transferred from Community Hospital to Dibble Hospital at Menlo Park.

His condition was reported as good, although an atttending physician at Community Hospital protested the transfer.

R.C. YMCA Discusses Program

Members of the Redwood City YMCA committee Tuesday night studied a long-range youth program at the home of Chmn. Neal Van Sooy.

Among the points stressed in the program were greater co-ordination among youth-serving groups, a program for boys not now being served and policies for the immediate future.

Progress was reported on the equipping of the new YMCA building at 2730 Broadway. An announcement of the opening date will be made in the near future.

Annual dinner of the Peninsula Branch of the YMCA will be held next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Burlingame Methodist Church, El Camino Real and Howard Ave.

Committeemen present last night were Chairman Van Sooy, A. H. Sagehorn, Rev. Charles E. Ward, A. Clarence Argo, James Thomas, Andrew L. Spinas, William H. Doxsee, Otto Tallent, Bert L. Werder, James P. Hagan, D. Fred Gatchel, V. M. Robertson, executive secretary, and Lloyd E. Coldwell, assistant secretary.

Woman Yells-- Judge Firm

SAN MATEO—"I hate you," a San Francisco woman screeched at Officer Zachery Whitten Wednesday morning in Judge Francis W. Murphy's Municipal Court in San Mateo.

Officer Whitten had just testified that Mrs. Vivian Reynolds, 37, 229 Edgewood Dr., San Francisco, was driving 54 miles an hour last week when he stopped her on El Camino Real at State St., after chasing her from Avilla Rd., a mile and a half away.

"What did you say?" Judge Murphy asked of the woman, who stood glaring at the officer as he testified against her. "I said I hated him," she retorted to the judge. She was fined $25 and her driver's license was suspended for 30 days.

Hillsborough People Urged To Register

Hillsborough residents who have changed their address or name through marriage since last election has been urged to register at police headquarters if they expect to vote in the May 16 election. Deadline for registrations is Mar. 2, Police Chief Walter Wisnom revealed, 40 days before the election date.

Newcomers to Hillsborough who are eligible to register and vote are those who have been in the state one year, the county 90 days and the city 30 days.

Burlingame Hold-up Man Is Captured

BURLINGAME—A newspaper clipping found in the wallet of a prisoner held in the Memphis, Tenn., jail Monday solved identity of a man who brutally beat Charles W. Clark in the attempted hold-up of the latter's cigar store and Greyhound Bus agency in the Broadway business area of Burlingame, on the night of Jan. 7, last, according to Dep. Police Chief John J. Hartnett.

Monday morning [illegible] Chief John J. Harper [illegible] had Clark view pict[illegible] Memphis prisoner.

"That's the man who held me up," said Clark. According to word sent the local police from Memphis, they arrested a man identified as William George Anderson, alias James Frey, aged 21, on charges of committing eight forgeries. When the prisoner was searched prior to being placed in a cell, the newspaper clipping, telling of the local hold-up attempt was found. The prisoner is said to have refused comment. His rogue's gallery picture was sent here with the positive identification following.

Local police stated that the prisoner is also wanted on forgery charges by police of Portland, San Francisco and Chicago. The attempted hold-up charge will be filed against the man and will be pressed should he escape the charges elsewhere, according to Deputy Chief Hartnett.

The attempted hold-up of Clark nearly resulted in tragedy for the latter.

R.C. Police Chase Wild Motorist

A chase from Redwood City to San Mateo of a speeder driving at approximately 110 miles an hour in early morning hours Tuesday resulted in the arrest of a man who claims he is a San Francisco auxiliary policeman and the placing of charges of speeding, reckless driving and carrying a concealed weapon against him.

Redwood City policemen, who chased the speeder, Gino Pardini, 32, San Francisco, from Chestnut St. here to Ninth Ave., San Mateo, fired shots at his large luxurious automobile which narrowly missed two sailors who were riding with Pardini.

Pardini's arrest was made by San Mateo Policemen Henry Kohnen and Howard Darknell, who picked up the chase on B St. and forced Pardini's car to a halt.

The chase started after Redwood City Policemen Cole V. Stafford and Robert West received a police broadcast giving a description of a car believed used by a holdup man in San Jose. The policemen stationed themselves on Chestnut St. at Bayshore Hwy. and as the speeding car whizzed by noticed the car answered the description given in the broadcast.

When the policemen took up the chase Pardini sped faster, they said. Chasing the car to 10th Ave. in San Mateo, Pardini turned left, turning off his car lights. Pardini went five blocks and turned to the right, turned left on Ninth Ave. and crossed the railroad tracks and then made a U-turn.

Redwood City policemen, still not shaken loose, fired a couple of shots at the car, one of which lodged in the door next to the driver's seat. San Mateo policemen then came onto the scene and forced Pardini to a stop.

With Pardini were two sailors, Donald G. Dallas, who said he was picked up by Pardini in Santa Cruz at 12:30 a.m., and William Knollman, who was picked up in East Palo Alto. The sailors were not held. Pardini's arrest was made at 2:50 a.m.

Dallas told police that Pardini did not drive through San Jose. Pardini was being held in the jail here for San Jose police, who will investigate to see if he had anything to do with the San Jose holdup.

A .38-caliber revolver, several shells, a "billy" club and an auxiliary policeman's badge were found under the driver's seat in Pardini's car. His car was fitted with red lights, siren and a short-wave radio.

CHURCH: St. Peter's Directors Set Program

Plans were completed Wednesday by the St. Peter's Church board of directors for the Pre-Lenten mission and Lenten Sunday evening fireside talks to be given by out of town speakers.

The talks will bring religious answers to current problems.

The schedule completed includes:

Sun., Feb. 20: "What the Bible Tells About Our Problems," the Rev. F. W. Russell, D.D., Palo Alto.

Mon., Feb. 21: "Why and How Communities are Organizing Now," Mrs. J. A. Kohler, San Francisco Juvenile Court specialist.

Shrove Tues., Feb. 22: "What the Bible Means About These Problems," the Rev. F. W. Russell, D.D.

Ash Wed., Feb. 23: "War and Glory," the Rev. Oscar E. Green, Palo Alto.

Sun., Feb. 27: "How the Big Brother Movement Gets the Boys," Sgt. John Mcehan, San Francisco police.

Sun., Mar. 5: "The Naval Chaplain and His Four-Fold Commission," Chaplain E. R. Barnes, Moffett Field.

Sun., Mar. 12: "Rehabilitation and Healing," Chaplain I. V. Garrison, Dibble Hospital, Menlo Park.

Sun., Mar. 19: Bishop Karl M. Block, D.D., LL.D., annual visit, sermon and confirmation.

Sun., Mar. 26: "The Life Line of Deep Sea Ships," Mr. Arthur B. Poole, American President Lines.

Palm Sun., Apr. 2: "The True Goal of East Asia," Mr. Fank Yongjun Lee, Korea, Stanford soldier instructor and overseas broadcaster.

Questions will be solicited from all attending, and especially from leaders in community organization

Monday night, the church called the Rev. Schuyler Pratt to be its rector, in the first act of its newly authorized parish vestry and board of directors. Mr. Pratt was sent to Redwood City in 1935 as the missionary of the diocese of California of the Episcopal Church, after missionary service at Hood River, in Eastern Oregon, and comparable emergency leadership as registrar and acting head of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley.

Mr. Harry W. Porte was appointed senior warden of the parish. Mr. H. A. Brown was authorized to secure from the chancellor of the diocese proper forms for incorporation, constitution and by-laws.

Mr. A. J. Snell was elected parish secretary; Mr. William Y. Patch, treasurer; Mr. W. A. Harper, liason officer of the vestry to the women's organizations; Mrs. H. H. Pauling, St. Mary's Guild Auxiliary; Mrs. Harold Allen, the social club; Mrs. W. A. Harper, the rummageers; Mrs. E. C. Potts, the Girls' Friendly Society.

Night School Plans Income Tax Classes

In an effort to relieve some of the worries of Redwood City taxpayers, the adult night school will hold classes at which citizens will have an opportunity to get aid in filling out the tax forms, it was announced by S. S. Mayo, superintendent.

Dates set for the classes are Feb. 21, 22, 23, 24, Mayo announced. The classes, to be conducted in room 110B from 7:30 to 9:30, will be open to the public and there will be no charge attached. Donald L. Kauffman will conduct the classes, and will take up problems individually.

The federal government originally planned to reserve all of Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas and parts of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota for permanent residences of the Indians.

Pat Frayne Denies Candidacy

Pat Frayne of Redwood City, San Francisco newspaperman and chairman of the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee, has denied reports published in a Peninsula newspaper yesterday that he was being groomed as a candidate to oppose John Z. (Jack) Anderson as congressman from the Eighth Congressional District.

Frayne declared, however, that there will be Democratic opposition to Congressman Anderson and that an announcement would be made in a couple of days as to who would be the standard bearer for the Democrats.

Frayne said a meeting of Eighth Congressional District political leaders would be held Thursday night to choose a candidate for the congressional post.

Meantime, there were no new political developments at the county seat today. No nomination papers were secured from County Clerk William H. Augustus this morning, he reported.

Supervisors Thomas L. Hickey of South San Francisco and Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch of Half Moon Bay declared today they would file their nomination papers with Augustus in a few days. Tomorrow is the opening day to file nomination papers.

S.M. County Population Makes Jump

San Mateo County's population leaped from 111,782 in 1940 to 136,574 in 1943, a 22.2 per cent increase, according to Bureau of Census estimates released by the Associated Press giving a statistical picture of population shifts resulting from wartime conditions. The population of Santa Clara County rose from 111,782 to 136,574 in the same period, an increase of 11.3 per cent.

California's population rose the most of any state in the country. More than one million people came into the state in the three-year period, swelling the total from 6,868,065 in 1940 to 7,881,694, a gain of 14.8 per cent.

The comparative figures are based on the 1940 census and the count made as of Nov. 1, 1943, to check on wartime changes, which have a close relation to governmental activities in connection with the war.

Population of Solano County jumped 102.8 per cent, Marin County increased 44.5 per cent and Napa County was up 38 per cent over the 1940 figures, the latest census revealed. Los Angeles County's increase was 12.8 per cent.

Santa Cruz was listed among the counties which showed a downward trend in population, with a 3 per cent decrease, from 45,057 in the 1940 census to 43,709, as of Nov. 1, 1943.

Rubbish Fire Burns Anew—No Damage

Fire broke out in a rubbish pile at 7:15 Tuesday night in the rear of a building on Broadway near Hamilton St., which is being demolished. Workmen had been burning rubbish there in the afternoon and the fire apparently smoldered and burst into flames some hours after. No property was endangered.

Expert Says Kelly Not Drunk

Joseph B. Swim, San Francisco toxicologist, has informed Dep. Coroner Lewis Franklin of Redwood City that tests of the contents of the stomachs of two persons who died in a Redwood City motel Friday night disclosed that Sgt. Walter Kelly, 29, of Woodside, had not been drinking, as might have been indicated by bottles found in the room, and that Mrs. Edith Scott, 38, of Emerald Lake, had drunk the equivalent of only one bottle of beer.

Franklin said that the two deaths definitely were caused by carbon monoxide poisoning.

The two were found dead Friday night by attendants at the motel. Sergeant Kelly had registered there at 5:30 a.m. Friday with another army sergeant, John Wojciechowiez, 25. Sergeant Wojciechowiez was unconscious when found lying on the floor in the bathroom but was revived by the Redwood City Fire Dept. He is now recuperating at the Dibble Hospital in Menlo Park.

J-M Smokestack

DON'T BE AN ACCIDENT STATISTIC!

There's been a lot of money spent to make J-M a safe place to work. We're pretty proud of our accident record.

But one look at the facts about industrial accidents across the country proves that a person just can't be too careful.

The facts are, that industrial accidents have killed more Americans than war, since Pearl Harbor. To Jan. 1, the score was: accidents, 37,600 killed; war, 30,100 killed. In the same period, accidents permanently disabled 210,000 and temporarily disabled 4,500,000—more than sixty times the number of military wounded and missing.

ALL ON ONE TEAM

Most factories do everything possible to maintain contact with their workers who have gone into the service. For instance, Johns-Manville sends a copy of every issue of its employee magazine "News Pictorial," to J-M men and women now in the service.

This helps cement the team spirit between home-front workers and front-line fighters. It lets our service men know that we're backing 'em up with production. We're passing it out . . . . to the enemy.

NO CUT-RATES IN WAR

There are no bargains in war. We can't ask Uncle Sam to build 50,000 airplanes instead of 100,000 to save money. We can't ask soldiers to shoot half as many bullets to save money. The only bargain in war is a War Bond which sells for $3 and returns $4.

—Ginger Rogers

Enjoyment as Well as Employment

"Can industry give full employment after the war? If by full employment we mean the prevention of serious, large-scale unemployment such as would bring a major depression, then I believe that private industry, encouraged by a government that does its part to create a climate favorable to the development of initiative, enterprise and expansion, can do the job.

"Americans want not only some security, but freedom as well—freedom that no totalitarian type of government can ever give us."—Lewis H. Brown, President of Johns-Manville.

DO YOUR BIT . . . NOW

He who waits to do a great deal of good at once, will never do any.

—Crabbe.

LITTLE JOURNEYS TO J-M PLANTS

Johns-Manville has 17 plants and mines situated all over this country and Canada. This "scatterment" came in handy when all of them went to work for the war. And it fitted right in with the government's idea of spreading out war plants. The J-M plant at Pittsburg, Cal., for example, came in handy when government cantonments and warehouses and industrial war plants sprang up all over the Pacific Coast and needed J-M shingles and roll roofings by the train load . . . and QUICK.

And this plant now fills rush orders for insulating materials for the Kaiser yards and other war plants in the West.

Former Sequoia Student Cited as Leader of Men

"Capt. Jack Manders was a flier's flier. The fellows trusted his judgment implicitly and would follow wherever he led."

This tribute carried in an Associated Press dispatch Wednesday was made Maj. Bruce T. Marston of Pasadena to the former Sequoia High School student who gave his life in heroic air action in the South Pacific theater.

Manders, who formerly lived in Atherton, and later attended the University of California College of Agriculture, enlisted in the army air corps in August, 1941, and received his wings at Luke Field, Ariz.

From that time on, Jack had one of the most spectacular careers of the many aerial heros of World War II. Jack fought as he lived—with all his heart—and was a real leader of men as the tribute by Major Marston showed. He gave the supreme sacrifice only after he had given the Japs a large dose of "hell in the clouds," leading one of the most spectacular and successful bombing groups of the war—the Blue Panthers.

"As operations officer of the lethal 'Blue Panthers,' the California captain did not fly as often as some of his associates. The organizational work, the supervisory duties kept him aground and left to others the job, and the glory, of carrying out his orders," the Associated Press story told.

"But Captain Jack never sidestepped the tough ones. Of his 32 missions, each was of a type which promised difficulties certainly and dangers probably. Whenever Wewak, with its chain of enemy airdromes, was the target; when Rabaul had to be raided without fighter escort, whenever intelligence reported that the objective was heavily charged with anti-aircraft batteries, then Manders was certain to take to the air and point the way.

"So it was no surprise when Manders chose to lead the outfit against Hansa Bay on New Guinea's northeast coast one Sunday not long ago. It was no surprise when he drove unswervingly through a massive belt of ack ack ringing the bay to attack a Japanese freighter directly offshore.

"His Mitchell crippled and flaming as a result of ground fire, Manders deliberately crashed into the side of the ship, destroying both in an enveloping sheet of red flame.

"Those who knew him," said the suggested citation, "and the balance of the crew said they had more than once talked of doing as much damage to the Japs as possible if they were ever in a spot where they thought they would perish."

Capt. Harold G. Dekay, Chicago, was detailed to draft the citation, but Major Marston; Capt. Wilfred J. McGowan, 1400 Palm Ave., San Mateo, a schoolmate of Manders at the University of California; Capt. Harry L. Knoll, Oakland, who was flying on his wing on that final mission; and Lieut. Howard Birgham, Springfield, Mass., who was normally Manders navigator, insisted on having a hand in it.

Major Marston, who first met Manders at the West Coast training Center at Santa Ana, Calif., said, "Jack held the outfit together. He had trained 80 per cent of the pilots and they swore by him. He was the best friend I ever had and the best flier I have ever known."

Captain Manders' wife, the former Rita Folsom, who survives him, lived in Stockton. His parents now live in Alaska.

While attending the University of California, Jack was an excellent student, director of publicity and a member of Zeta XI fraternity.

Larry Irwin Leaves Staff; Terry Hayward Returns

The Redwood City Tribune Tuesday announced two staff changes. Loren (Larry) Irwin, associate editor, has resigned and 1st Lt. Henry A. (Terry) Hayward has returned—the first Tribune service man back on the job from World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin and their two daughters plan to leave their San Carlos home Thursday for Idaho where Irwin will assist his father, Carl D. Irwin, in the operation of a 160-acre ranch near Twin Falls. Irwin has been a member of the Tribune staff since May 11, 1942. He is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

R. H. (Dick) Scott, formerly with the Napa Register and Vallejo Times Herald, has been appointed news editor.

Lieutenant Hayward, injured when a simulated invasion of the Pacific Coast became too realistic, is on terminal leave from the army pending final discharge after 11 months of hospitalization.

He left the Tribune Dec. 1, 1941, for army service, and was commissioned a second lieutenant at Ft. Knox, Ky., July 25, 1942. He was promoted to first lieutenant in February, 1943.

A few days later he was placed in command of an amphibious tank section which was undergoing maneuvers preparatory to overseas duty.

The maneuver, off the coast below Monterey, was designed to invade and secure a beachhead under battle conditions. Lieutenant Hayward's tank was struck and disabled in the water. Five men were hurt, including Hayward who was strapped to the driver's seat and who went down with the amphibious vehicle.

He worked himself free and came to the surface where he was rescued by a crash boat, but the accident sent him to the hospital with a gaping wound in his hip and a dislocated and torn pelvis.

Hayward was married Dec. 24, 1941. He, his wife and five-month-old son, Terrance, are living with Mrs. Hayward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ernst in San Francisco. They have purchased a home in Redwood City and plan to move here next month.

Lieutenant Hayward will be in the advertising department of the Tribune under L. G. Jones, advertising manager.

Gerken Rites Are Scheduled

BURLINGAME — Funeral services for Forest Gerken, Burlingame member of the California Highway Patrol, who was killed here Tuesday on Bayshore Hwy. in a collision between his motorcycle and an automobile truck, will be held under auspices of the Burlingame Lodge No. 400, F. & A. M. in Masonic Temple, today at 2:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, police are continuing their investigation of the accident which occurred when the officer, who was en route from his home, at 1136 Cambridge Rd., to report for patrol duty, was struck by a truck driven by Guiseppe DeMattei of 1025 Cypress Ave., San Mateo, at Bayshore Hwy. and Oak Ave. in Burlingame.

Fellow officers of the highway patrol will serve as pallbearers and honor guard for Gerken. Members of Peninsula police departments will likewise send delegations to final services.

Inurnment will take place at Olivet Memorial Park. Friends may pay last respects up to noon on today at the 23 California Dr. Chapel of Crosby-N. Gray Co.

Warden Finds 'Fire Trap'

"A second Cocoanut Grove setup" was the way County Fire Warden Bert L. Werder Tuesday characterized the Somers Sand Bar on El Camino Real opposite Selby Ln. in unincorporated area south of Redwood City in a letter to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

The place, operated by Rolly Somers, is a "veritable fire trap," Werder declared. It is decorated with bamboo and cocoa matting and grass skirts, supposedly fireproof, but on personal test burned like tinder, he said.

The decorations are loosely hung from the ceilings and wall and are highly inflammable, Werder told the board.

"Exits are absolutely poor and inadequate, being narrow and tunnel-like hallways, making the place a veritable fire trap," he exclaimed.

Werder's report to the supervisors was made at the board's request in an effort to prevent a tragedy such as occurred at the Cocoanut Grove in Boston. Werder said he found other public assembly places such as theaters, public eating places, dance halls, etc., in unincorporated area to be free from hazardous decorations and having ample exits for escapes.

Civic Leaders Propose Ballot on Millbrae Issue

Future of Millbrae's government may be decided at the May 16 election, it was revealed Tuesday at a meeting of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors with the announcement that civic leaders are investigating to determine if it is legal to put the proposition on the ballot. Three proposals were voiced at today's meeting by Percy Cavanaugh and Col. A. M. Graham, Millbrae civic leaders. One proposition which may find its way onto the ballot is whether or not to incorporate, another is whether or not to change the police district from a limited to an unlimited district.

The matter came to a head when Millbrae Police Chief Frank Palmieri turned in a letter of resignation to the supervisors because, he said, he could not live on the $200 a month paid by the limited police district and pay his own expenses out of it.

The supervisors today continued the police district matter to allow Millbrae residents to determine what course they should take. Millbrae representatives are to make a report on their progress at the next meeting of the supervisors Feb. 29.

The board approved a recommendation of County Probation Officer Francis Robinson that the supervisors not enter into an agreement with San Francisco Supervisors to boost the pay for San Mateo County boys at the Log Cabin Ranch at La Honda from $50 to $80.65 a month.

Consideration of the commercial hog ranch ordinance was continued to the next meeting. There have been no protests to the proposed ordinance, but it was reported hog ranchers plan to hold a meeting to consider it more thoroughly.

Peter Sorensen of Redwood City was denied a permit to open a rock quarry on Canada Rd. off Jefferson Ave.

MEDICINE: Health Director Reports Scarlet Fever

Scarlet fever cases, mainly among school children, have been on the increase in San Mateo County, Dr. Charles C. Gans, of the Public Health and Welfare Department warned this week, and he urges parents to co-operate in its control, and urged that children be vaccinated.

Most of the cases have been light, Dr. Gans stated. Early treatment with the newer drugs, he adds, often clears up the disease without the serious after effects of former years.

"Isolate the child, call your physician," the health official warned. "It is important to call the doctor early, when the rash is in its beginning stages, so a right diagnosis may be made. Children should be noticed for the following symptoms: sore throat, fever, nausea and vomiting and a fine rash, starting on chest and upper back. A mild case may have little fever, no vomiting and still be scarlet fever.

"Do not send the child back to school until the school nurse has made her inspection and you are sure the time is right, so the disease will not spread further. Do not overlook a mild rash—it may be very significant. Should the disease go on into epidemic status, it will gain in severity and it may be your child who will have to bear the brunt of crippling or even death. We are asking you to assist us in the control of this disease."

FIRE: Defective Flue Causes R.C. Houes Blaze

Damage estimated at $1100 by the San Mateo County Forest Service was done Monday afternoon to a four-room dwelling at 560 Beresford Ave. occupied by Mrs. James Logan, when the attic and roof caught fire from a defective flue. The flames, fanned by vents on the roof, had eaten down into the kitchen, and were blazing fiercely when the county firemen arrived.

Darrell Simmons, of the forest service, was accidentally cut with an ax which a fellow fighter was wielding when the two were cutting through the roof to get at the blaze. Several stitches had to be taken in his hand.

All the furniture was removed from the house, and received water damage only, amounting to about $100, county firemen said. Considerable damage was done by the flames to the kitchen and the roof was weakened.

Three county trucks were sent out on the call and seven firemen, with the assistance of neighbors, battled the flames. About a thousand gallons of water were pumped onto the blaze.

Mrs. Winnie Rees is the owner of the house.

Turn FOOD into EFFECTIVE WORKING STRENGTH

You can't be a dawn buster riding a tractor or go sweating through a work-shift in a war plant...hour after hour ...on food that fails to fire up your energy. No, sir...your grub has to keep your stomach contented with a staying quality that keeps delivering effective working strength.

EAT THE RIGHT FOODS EVERY DAY FOR HEALTH

Food for physical fitness depends first, upon buying the right kinds of foods and second, on how you take care of it and how you prepare it to preserve greatest nutritive values.

When you buy food think of all your meals for the day so that your family gets the proper nutritionally balanced diet. Be guided by the Government recommended chart of the 7-Basic Foods which supply the essential protein, vitamins and minerals for better than average diet.

After you buy your day's food take care of it. Keep it under proper refrigeration.... Fresh vegetables for example, quickly lose vitamin content if exposed to room temperature. Cook foods according to correct time and temperature and for most vegetable cooking use little or no water. A thorough steam-through is the proper thing to do.

America is depending upon the full output of her Home Front workers. Keep your muscles strong, your head clear and your eyes bright by eating the right kinds of food.

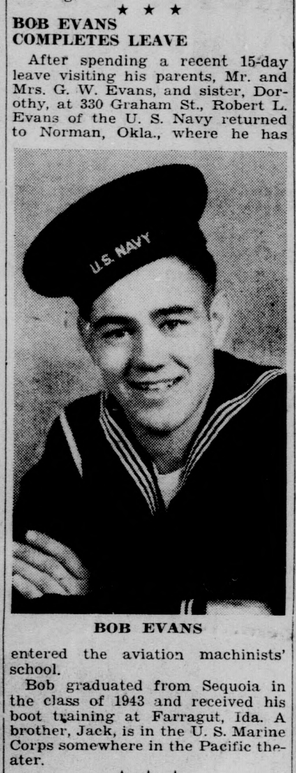
WARREN UPTON VISITS WOODSIDE

Radioman 1/c Warren E. Upton of the U. S. Navy has returned to duty after a brief leave spent with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Ralston of Woodside.



WARREN UPTON

Upton, a survivor of the Pearl Harbor attack, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Upton, and following his graduation from Washington Union High School at Centerville, spent much time here at Woodside and at the Redwood City Yacht Harbor. Since the declaration of war, he has had practically continuous service in the South Pacific area.

Police Hold Pardini As Suspect

Gino Pardini, 32-year-old San Francisco auxiliary policeman who was arrested early Tuesday morning by San Mateo police after he had been chased from Redwood City to San Mateo at a rate which allegedly reached 110 miles an hour Wednesday had holds placed on him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and San Francisco police.

Pardini Tuesday afternoon pleaded guilty before Redwood City Police Judge Edward I. McAuliffe to charges of speeding, reckless driving and improper car lights. Judge McAuliffe dismissed the counts on speeding and improper lights, but sentenced him to pay a $250 fine or spend 50 days in the county jail here. Pardini was still in jail Wednesday afternoon.

A charge of carrying a concealed weapon was held in abeyance pending an investigation by the FBI to determine his citizenship status. Pardini does not have his citizenship papers, officers said, but he contends he has taken his naturalization tests and was awaiting the results.

Meantime, two San Francisco police inspectors brought Joyce Kenealy, cashier at the Fairmont Hotel, here Wednesday morning to see if Pardini answered the description of a man who held her up while she was on duty early this week. One of the officers said she believed Pardini was the man, but the other officer said the cashier was hazy on the identification.

The San Francisco police placed a hold on Pardini pending further investigation.

Artillery fire may be heard at points distant from the origin, but not at an intermediate point.

Court Studies Petitions

Two new petitions in the Fannie Mae Herrscher estate litigation were being studied this week by Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt.

Both petitions were filed by Atty. Edmund E. Herrscher, former husband of the late Mrs. Herrscher.

Herrscher asked that a court order approving attorney fees of $25,000 be set aside on grounds that $15,000 for "extraordinary" services was too large a sum.

Both Herrscher and estate attorneys were given 10 days in which to file additional information on Herrscher's petition seeking the entire estate.

Another petition asking that Robert Howard, son of Mrs. Herrscher by a former marriage, be removed as executor, was dismissed by the court.

Councilman Anderson Takes Papers

Councilman Harold F. Anderson, Redwood City attorney, who Saturday announced that he definitely would seek the supervisorial post from the Third Township, Monday took out nomination papers from County Clerk William H. Augustus.

Taking out of papers by Anderson brings to four the number who have taken out nomination papers for the Third Township post. Others are Dr. A. E. O'Neill, George J. Alvis and Councilman Evans A. Fletcher, all of Redwood City.

Wednesday is the first day to file nomination papers.

Edward R. Cosgriff of Burlingame, chairman of the County Republican Central Committee, today took out 10 sets of nomination papers to be distributed in the First, Second and Third Townships.

Robert W. Dyer and William H. Penaat of San Carlos today secured nomination papers for the County Republican Central Committee for the Second Township.

E. J. Carrigan of San Mateo took out 20 sets of nomination papers for the County Democratic Committee to be distributed throughout the county.

Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch last week took out nomination papers for re-election from the Coastside.

Staff Sergeant Edward Kane Dies in Action on Marshalls

Staff Sgt. Edward C. Kane, 26, former Sequoia High School athlete was killed in action during the recent Marshalls campaign, according to a report received today by his mother, Mrs. D. J. Kane, 254 Poplar Ave.

Edward was one of the star baseball players on the Sequoia High School teams during his high school days and later was a member of the Redwood City town team.

Entering the service in March, 1941, prior to Pearl Harbor, he was last stationed at Fort Ord prior to going overseas to take part in the important conquest of the Marshalls.

Edward is survived by a younger brother, Pvt. Thomas S. Kane, who was last reported stationed at Camp Howze in Texas.

William Oliver Is Prisoner

William Melburn Oliver, seaman 1/c, was reported Tuesday by the navy department as one of 73 men who are held prisoners of war by the Japanese in Burma, Japan and the Philippines. Nine other Californians were included in the list.

Oliver is the father of Minnie Lee Oliver, 251 Lincoln Ave., Redwood City. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belle Whitaker, reside at 251 Lincoln Ave., Redondo Beach, according to the navy report.

The report did not state in which of the three areas Oliver is held.

Burglar Nets Varied Loot

BURLINGAME—A burglar gaining entrance to the F. T. Ross home at 1120 Killarney Ave. early Saturday by jimmying a locked window, ransacked the dresser drawers in bedrooms and escaped with a bank containing $20 and a varied assortment of loot, according to Burlingame police report today.

The family was away from the house between 6 and 8 p.m. On returning they found that a hurried search had been made through various drawers. Besides the money, the loot consisted of a fountain pen, manicure set and shaving kit. Dep. Police Chief John J. Hartnett is conducting an investigation. He urges residents who notice strangers loitering in their neighborhood to immediately notify police.

War Chest Elects Head

E. H. Cosgriff of Burlingame was elected president of the San Mateo County War Chest Inc. at the last meeting held at War Chest headquarters, 1211 Burlingame Ave., Burlingame.

Other officers elected are Ira Potter, San Mateo, vice president A. H. Sagehorn, San Carlos, treasurer, and Capt. Lorne G. McAloney, Burlingame, secretary.

The executive committee is headed by George J. Davis, Millbrae, as chairman, and R. P. McAllister of San Mateo, vice chairman. Members are J. J. Canaveri, P. H. Lilienthal Jr., J. A. Madden, David Simpson, Mrs. R. W. Salisbury, Louis B. Dematteis, J. P. Hagen, Mrs. J. C. Williamson, J. J. Oberhau, Elinor L. Falvey, Edward Hansen, Pansy J. Abbott, Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, Edward Anderson, David Wisnom, Charles Benton, J. P. Crown, Mrs. Henry Potter Russell, A. H. Randall and U. S. Simonds.

The budget and admission committee elected at the meeting is Mrs. Henry P. Russell, chairman; John D. Bromfield, U. S. Simonds, Charles C. Hannan and Earl P. Wilsey.

A board of directors also was elected. This body consists of persons from each section of the county representing business, civic groups, labor, social and fraternal organizations, veterans and manufacturing concerns.

General Kirk Will Dedicate New Hospital

MENLO PARK—Dibble General Hospital will be dedicated Mar. 2, with Maj. Gen. Norman T. Kirk, surgeon general of the U. S. Army, as speaker at the afternoon ceremony to which the public will be invited.

It is expected that Mrs. John Dibble, widow of the army officer for whom the hospital is named, will attend and present a portrait of Col. Dibble.

The hospital, now awaiting its first overseas cases, will be opened to the public for inspection, Col. William H. Allen, commanding officer, said today.

Chimney Fire Causes $100 Damage to House

A chimney and roof fire Monday afternoon at the home occupied by Mrs. Neal Sollars on Canada Rd. near Jefferson Ave., resulted in damage of approximately $100, according to the Woodside Fire Dept. Twelve men with one pump and tank went out on the call.

The fire originated from an overheated chimney, and the damage was confined to the attic and roof.

Sollars is with the Coast Guard, firemen said.

F. C. Gerken Meets Death In Collision

A few minutes after he had bade his wife and three children goodbye as he started to the Redwood City office of the California Highway Patrol to report for duty, Forrest C. Gerken of 1136 Cambridge Rd., Burlingame, met instant death when the motorcycle he was operating and an automobile collided on Bayshore Hwy. at Oak Grove Ave., Burlingame.

Booked at Burlingame police station on a technical charge of manslaughter and later released pending a coroner's inquest was Guiseppe DeMattei, 48, janitor, residing at 1025 Cypress Ave., San Mateo, whose auto truck collided with the officer's motorcycle, head-on.

To Dep. Police Chief John Hartnett, DeMattei stated that he was proceeding north on Bayshore Hwy. and had proceeded from his traffic lane to the southbound one to turn into Oak Grove Ave. when he felt an impact and saw the officer's body come hurtling toward his windshield. He claims that at no time until the very second of impact, did he see the victim.

Police Capt. R. C. Theuer, Officers Milton Ogborn and Richard Grunig, placed DeMattei under arrest and rushed Gerken to Mills Memorial Hospital, where he was pronounced dead. Opinion was expressed that he died instantly.

The dead officer leaves his wife, Grace; two daughters, Marilyn Elaine, 13, and Barbara Jeanne, 12; a son, Clifford, 5; a sister, Mrs. R. M. Logan, of 2133 Poppy Dr., Burlingame; his mother, Mrs. Anna Gerken of Santa Cruz; two brothers, Harmon L. of San Francisco, and Cpl. Ralph Gerken, U. S. Army.

The family had planned to observe Patrolman Gerken's 46th birthday on Thursday of this week. He had been a member of the California Highway Patrol for two years. Previously he had been a radio technician in San Francisco and Burlingame. With his parents and other members of his family, he had resided in Placer County for many years, engaging in ranching.

McKericher Death Recalls R.C. Speech

Dr. Melvin Stuart McKericher, director of religious activities at San Quentin, who died Tuesday within an hour after witnessing the execution of Glennard Brown, Placer County goat herder, will be remembered in Redwood City for the furore aroused here last Fall as the result of his statement that an average of 28 former Boy Scouts became inmates of the institution every month.

Dr. McKericher used the figure in a talk at a meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood at the First Baptist Church here on Oct. 11. The statement was immediately challenged by Edward A. Barrer, county scout executive, in a letter to Warden Clinton T. Duffy.

Warden Duffy acknowledged the letter, thanking Barrer for calling the matter to his attention, and saying that he had cautioned Dr. McKericher not to make any statements without actual figures to substantiate them. To his knowledge, he said, the total number of former boy scouts among prison inmates had not been recorded.

Barrer's written request to McKericher for a retraction, based on Duffy's letter, was refused, the director insisting that figures to back his statement could be secured from Dr. W. Earle Smith, a member of the State Board of Prison Directors. He expressed sympathy with the Boy Scout movement, and said he had tried to help the organization in every possible way.

"I am very sorry that a 'mountain' has been made out of a 'mole hill'," the director wrote. "In making the statement, I believed I was talking to a group of leaders who were interested in the welfare of the youth of our nation, and were seeking information and the truth as to the background of the inmates who make up our population at San Quentin"

Dr. Smith supported McKericher, stating in a letter to Barrer that figures for 1941, 1942 and 1943 showed that 29 persons a month had been received who, by their own statements, were former Boy Scout members. He said, however, that similar figures could be cited for other social and religious organizations. He praised the Boy Scout movement, saying no other youth movement was doing more for the youth problem than the scouts, and said it was unfortunate the controversy had arisen.

New Radio Network System Connects Police Districts

The sheriff's office Wednesday announced completion of a radio network system linking the entire Bay side of San Mateo County from Daly City to Palo Alto to the county radio control room in Redwood City.

Radio Engineer Walter Harrington of Redwood City disclosed that five automobile transmitters have been installed in the Woodside Fire District, and one transmitter is operating in the Millbrae police car.

At the present time, Harrington explained, broadcasting stations operated by the county—South San Francisco, San Bruno and Daly City, Hillsborough, Redwood City and Palo Alto—are on the same frequency.

In addition, police cars operating from the sheriff's office, South San Francisco, Daly City, San Bruno, Woodside and Millbrae, send on the same frequency, but one different than that of the central stations.

Receivers are constantly tuned at Redwood City to the broadcast stations and cars in Burlingame, Hillsborough and San Mateo, Harrington explained.

In the near future, he said, the police car units in Atherton, Menlo Park, Palo Alto and Stanford will be tuned to the Redwood City police car frequency to increase coordination of police and fire services in the area.

The next step, Harrington said, will be to co-ordinate special police districts throughout the county, including those at Emerald Lake and Sharp Park.

Harrington explained that the calls from the central station are broadcast on the ordinary police short wave band frequencies. Broadcasts from the cars are on ultra-high frequencies through a repeater station centrally located.

Scarf Strangles Tom Stafford

Tom Stafford, Redwood City employe, narrowly escaped possible death Monday when the scarf he was wearing became caught in a vertical shaft on a pump at the sewer discharge plant on Steinberger St. and choked him.

The scarf tore apart, freeing Stafford. He drove to the city corporation yard on Chestnut St. near Bayshore Hwy., but he could hardly talk. Frank Allain, a city employe, took him to the office of Dr. A. H. Clattenberg, who took him to Palo Alto Hospital.

Dr. Clattenberg's office reported that Stafford's condition was "satisfactory."

Stafford is the husband of Mrs. Jane Stafford, a deputy in the county tax collector's office.

County Gets State School Apportionment

School districts of San Mateo County levied $2,015,145 in property taxes for 1943-44 and received $1,323,090 in state apportionments from the state treasury, California Taxpayers' Assn. announced Tuesday in making public its preliminary survey of countywide school district revenue. Taxes levied for the school districts include debt service demands as well as current school expenditures, the taxpayers' association stated.

O'Neill Files For County Supervisor

Dr. Arthur E. O'Neill, Redwood City dentist and a member of the San Mateo County Health Board for five years, four of which he was chairman, Wednesday filed his nomination papers as a candidate for supervisor from the Third Township.

Dr. O'Neill was the first candidate for any county office to file with County Clerk William H. Augustus.

Dr. O'Neill is a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans.

"As an overseas veteran of World War I and a county taxpayer for 20 years," Dr. O'Neill said, "I feel I can bring to the board understanding, fairness and justice to both returning veterans and the county taxpayer."

Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey of South San Francisco Tuesday afternoon took out nomination papers for re-election from the First Township.

COMMUTERS: Bond Contest Win Over Kiwanis Surprise

In a spirit of profound humility and grateful appreciation, we are privileged to announce that the Commuters Club finished first in the local war bond competition with total sales of $71,775 (not counting $262 in stamps!)

The weight of this sensational achievement is almost embarrassing to one Joe Caboose who, like the military propagandists, last week tried to prepare his readers for what appeared to be certain defeat at the hands of the Kiwanis Club. The K's had already clocked in with 65 grand, and at that time the Commuters had only 24 gees in hand and less than 30 in sight.

But at their monthly dinner meeting at Sodini's Thursday night, the Commuters ate red meat and stubbornly refused to accept defeat. Tom Cutting made an impassioned plea to the "eighteen seventy-five" boys. "Don't be ashamed to buy $25 bonds if that's all you can afford," shouted Tom. "Put me down for six. Who's next?"

Then Bert Conroy, who had previously subscribed for $2000 in bonds, got to his feet and announced that for every $25 bond sold at the meeting he would match it with a purchase of his own. One member bought 46 $25 bonds. Poor Bert! If you hear of him selling his home and his rabbit hutches, you will know he did it for a good cause.

Casual curb sales at the booth on Broadway Saturday afternoon netted more than $21,000, according to Chmn. Clarence Brizee. The blockbuster bomb and aircraft torpedo exhibit, arranged by Wrex Cruse, attracted a lot of attention and stimulated sales. Brizee's committee—Al Armitage, Lu Reiss, Roy Cereghino, Claude Gerdes and Cruse—were all on hand to plug sales and keep the show moving. They were ably assisted by such volunteers as Bill Curran, Secretary McKeegan, Stan Perkins, John Clarke, Jim Toso and others.

The Commuters are especially grateful to J. Gene Barrett of the Disabled American Veterans, who not only arranged for the use of the American Printing Co. sound truck, but who stayed on the job all afternoon and ballyhooed the sales of bonds. They wish also to acknowledge their appreciation of the splendid co-operation of the police and fire departments, with a special vote of thanks to Officer Henry Mengel for his polite and friendly help. Finally, acknowledgement to the merchants who contributed merchandise for auction, and to Lieutenant Commander Anthony who brought down his famous drum and bugle corps from the navy depot at Tanforan.

Jack Welch greeted us at the Redwood station the other morning with this: "Caboose, I wish you would editorialize against people who pack acacia into town on the trains. Half the people are allergic to its pollen . . . and the other half find its odor offensive." Just then we unveiled a bouquet we had been holding behind our back, and it was . . . acacia!

Which reminds us of a true story about one Daniel Timothy Buckley of Piedmont. Dan went home (sober) one recent Saturday afternoon and was met at the door by his wife who said: "Dan, we're having company for dinner. Go right down and buy some flowers to decorate the house." "What kind of flowers?" sure Dan wanted to know. "Oh, cut flowers, anything," said his wife, "go along with you." Dan came home with an armful of acacia for which he had paid $1.50. Mrs. Buckley was so incensed she tossed the acacia out the back door while it was still in Dan's arms. After Dan picked himself up, his wife said: "Now look at your own back door. There are three acacia trees, all in full bloom!"

Our anchor department will be curious to know where we got the acacia we took to the office the other morning. Because acacia groweth not around the Caboose cabin. Here's the story, believe it or not. We had just bought a paper from Bill at the north corner of the depot when a very attractive young lady in black walked over with her arms full of acacia. "I have just decided I don't want this stuff," she said, "where can I dispose of it?" A gentleman standing near us suggested she discard it in the shrubbery next to the station. After she walked away, we went over and helped ourselves to part of it.

Which makes us sort of a floral dog robber, or acacia scavenger, or something. But we don't mind, we like it well enough to pick it up . . . out of the shrubbery. And we're not going to do any editorializing against it!

Met our old friend and former commuter, Harold Simpton, sunning himself on a bench near the bond booth Saturday. Harold is convalescing from a long and severe illness which overtook him in Los Angeles last Summer. He looks fine, but he says he must take it easy for another month or six weeks. Harold said his greatest shock was in learning that his business could run without him. That's a lesson many of us learn too late. And few of us get a second crack at it. Lots of good luck on your comeback trail, Harold!

The baseball teams of the Kiwanis and Commuters Club will open their spring season Wednesday night—Feb. 16—at a steak dinner at Wood's Tavern, now known as 'Kelley's," below Five Points on El Camino Real. The K's team will be host to the C's team, but other members of both clubs may attend in the rooting section . . . it they "pay as you go." It's all in the spirit of good clean fun, so if you want to enjoy a pleasant evening, and get the lowdown on the city's championship pennant race, follow the bat boy to Wood's Tavern Wednesday evening.

One final word about the Commuters's bond drive. There was no magic in their achievement. And no stars. Just a good team, with every member doing his part. Clarence Brizee and his committee carried the ball, but every other member ran interference and tackled. It was just superb teamwork . . . under the inspired leadership of "Chief Coach" Jake Buhler.

(P.S. We were just going to press when Stan Perkins phoned to say that the much postponed Kiwanis-Commuters baseball team dinner had been postponed again—to a week from next Wednesday—because Woods Tavern had caught fire. No, there was no evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin!"

SCOUTING: Scouts Plan Return to Salvage Work

With the bond drive brought to a successful conclusion the Boy Scouts of San Mateo County will return shortly to their salvage work at the request of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

A special meeting will be held shortly for this purpose under the leadership of Scout Comsr. J. V. Christie.

SENIOR SCOUTING

Commodore T. W. Spiller, chairman of the Senior Scouting Committee for the council met last night with the members of his committee, Messrs. Douglass, Linden, Van Voris, Werder, Baker and Christie, at which time the senior scouting program for the year 1944 was discussed and definite plans for promoting this program were developed.

ROUND TABLE

Scout Comsr. J. V. Christie has called a meeting of all scoutmasters, skippers, commissioners and district chairmen throughout the San Mateo County for Thursday evening, Feb. 24, at 8 p.m. at Boy Scout headquarters in Burlingame. A perfect attendance is anticipated inasmuch as a complete program of activtiies for the coming year will be set up.

Plans will also be discussed for the district and council camporees to be held in May.

TROOP NEWS

Troop 105, under Scoutmaster Williamson, held their regular meeting with 17 boys attending. An explorer patrol will be formed. Charter members are Don Blum, Gordon Moore, Bert Mehl and Ken Adams. Scout Del Kenedy advanced to the tenderfoot rank. Jim DeBenedetti is troop scribe.

Chet Wilson, field executive, was introduced by H. D. Herkner, president of the Kiwanis Club, to the members and gave a short talk on the history of scouting. Mr. Wilson was accompanied by Cub Eugene Wilson of Pack 15, who gave a talk on what cubbing has meant to him. Scout Jim DeBenedetti of Troop 105 talked on how scouting has helped him.

Sea Scout Edgar Baume of Ship 145 gave a short talk on the Sea Scout phase of the scouting program and thanked the Kiwanis Club for their sponsorship and their interest in the ship.

Troop 160, under Scoutmaster Stout held a regular meeting with 19 present. Test passing was the feature of the evening. Scout Donald Morse advanced to the second class rank.

Troop 143, under Scoutmaster Hamilton Day held a regular meeting with 22 in attendance. Boys practiced first aid.

Troop 154, San Carlos, under Scoutmaster Riley, held a regular inspection night meeting with 25 attending. Bob Hallawell is the troop scribe.

Troop 160, under Scoutmaster Armstrong, held a regular meeting with 20 present. Morse code drill was enjoyed and Scout George McGaffigan advanced to the first class rank.

Lake Assn. Plans Police Protection

The Public Utilities Committee of the Highlands Improvement Assn. Tuesday submitted a plan to provide all-night police patrol for the Emerald Lake area.

The plan provides for securing 150 members for the association, with each member paying $12 a year of which $11 will go toward the new police program. Out of the fund, members of the committee said, deficits in operating expense of patroling will be met and a reserve for equipment and replacements will be established.

All funds will be under direct supervision of the utilities committee with frequent check-ups on services rendered under present plans. The first item in equipment already assured will be a two-way radio to add to the speed and efficiency of operation.

The association issued the following statement:

"While a permanent solution must come through state legislation permitting the supervisors to appropriate funds sufficient to cover patroling cost and derived from taxes, two years must elapse before this would become operative. Meanwhile, reports of house-breaking and other misdemeanors have increased and the plan is an answer to the demand for a temporary remedy.

"Apr. 1 has been set as deadline for the drive and should 150 members not be secured, $11 of the $12 will be returned to each paid in full member, $1 being retained as association membership fee.

"The committee reported to the January directors' meeting that it was obviously impossible under present wartime conditions, to maintain night patroling on the legal limit of $2400 per year, out of which the patrol officer must purchase, maintain and operate a car and meet all living expenses and that only by supplementary financing could the district temporarily meet the situation.

"Residents and property owners desiring further information should contact committee members as follows: Charles W. Belton, telephone 781; William P. Kielty, 2906, or Joseph L. Hyman, 3056. Pres. E. Hoffman Price, 2991-R, and Secy A. J. Bullerdieck, 3794, also will answer inquiries. Good results from the canvass are being reported."

R.C. Library Lists Books On Negroes

In co-operation with National Negro History Week, now being observed, the Redwood City Public Library has released a list of outstanding books, portraying the interesting history of the American Negro.

The groups includes "The Negro Caravan," "Anthology of Negro Literature," "Stars Fell on Alabama," "90 in the Shade," "Lost Spirituals," "Brown America," "The Negro Sings a New Heaven," "Angel Mo' and Her son, Roland Hays," "The American Negro," "George Washington Carver," "Dust Tracks on a Road," "Patterns of Negro Segregation," "The Green Pastures Spirituals," "Negro Folk Songs," "New World A Coming."

"Roll, Jordan, Roll," "No Day of Triumph," "Slave Songs of the Georgia Sea Islands," "Race Relations and the Race Problem," "Negroes and the War," "For My People," "Character Building," "The Negro in Our History," "Cavalcade of the American Negro."

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Julia tells- How to prepare variety meats

WE HOUSEWIVES in the United States are learning how truly delicious many of the less familiar "variety meats" can be. And we're keenly interested, because these meats are relatively plentiful in supply and therefore cost us fewer ration points. We're learning, for example, that are especially choice if they're lamb kidneys, but that those of calf, beef, and pork are also good. Simple preparation: wash them well in cold water, and split to make them lie flat; remove white tubes and excess tissue and fat; soak in cold salted water (1 tsp. salt per qt.) about 30 mins.; drain and dry well; cook until just tender, by broiling, sauteing, or stewing.

Kidney Stew: saute onion in drippings, melted butter or margarine; add cut-up kidneys, salt, pepper, nutmeg, Worcestershire sauce, and parsley to taste, and water to cover; cover and simmer for 20 mins. or until tender; thicken with flour mixed to a paste with a little cold water, stirring constantly; serve immediately.

Similarly, with HEARTS

we're learning that both calf and lamb hearts are tender, that beef hearts take a little longer cooking, and that pork hearts are coarser in texture. To prepare: wash well in slightly warmed water, take out arteries and veins that may be cut away; simmer slowly in water until tender, adding 1 tsp. salt to each quart of water when half done; allow about 2 hours for calf, lamb and pork hearts, about 3-3½ hours for beef hearts.

Braised Heart: instead of par-boiling heart, subject it to low, moist heat in closely covered pan; first brown heart on all sides in small amount of fat and add about ½-cup water; season with salt and pepper; cover and cook in moderate oven (350° F.); allow 1½-2 hours for calf, lamb and pork hearts, about 3½ hours for beef.

And when it comes to TONGUE, we're learning that all four kinds are good, with beef the favorite of course. To prepare: wash well, scraping and cutting away any excess tissue; cover with boiling water and bring to a boil; then skim water and simmer tongue gently until tender; add ½ tsp. salt per lb. when half done; allow 2-3 hours for calf tongue, 1-1½ for lamb, 3-4 for beef, 1½-2 for pork.

If tongue is to be served hot, remove it from liquid and plunge into cold water for few seconds, thus making it easier to remove skin or root ends. If to be served cold, let it cool in the water used for cooking.

We all know about LIVER and how appetizing it can be. But not all of us may realize how easy it is to disguise its flavor for those who dislike it. Simply take equal parts of liver and stewing beef or lamb, add 3 tbsps. of flour for each ½-lb. of liver, salt and pepper and grind. Form into patties and fry—or make into meat loaf. If you say nothing about this being liver patties the family will eat and enjoy it!
